

Dear Participants of the ICOM-ICME Annual Conference,

Thank you for your registration, we are very happy to welcome you soon here in Budapest at the Museum of Ethnography. As the conference is approaching, we will also send you more information about the days, that you will spend here with us.

First of all, let me introduce myself. My name is Borka, I am working at the Museum of Ethnography, as an international relations coordinator and I will be your contact partner before the conference and during your stay. Don't hesitate to contact me with questions, feedback...

My first information letter is about the payment procedure.

After filling in the registration form, please transfer your participation fee, which will be calculated according to the following scale.

- ICOM Members – 220 €
- Non-Members – 240 €
- Presenters – 110 €
- Students – 110 €
- Local participants – 110 €
- Hybrid/Online – 90 €

Payment can only be made by bank transfer to the following bank account:

- Account holder: Néprajzi Múzeum
- IBAN: HU02 1003 2000 0142 5145 0000 0000
- SWIFT: HUSTHUHB
- When making the payment, please write the following in the bank notice (message accompanying the payment): the name of the participant and ICME.

Payment deadline: 30. November 2023

After successful payment, my colleagues will send you an invoice with the details you provided on the registration form. It may take a few days until the payment arrives in our account, so please be patient and wait for my colleague's message.

Please feel free to contact me if you have any other questions regarding the payment.

Best regards,

Borka